Golf is a game of experiences. The golf course can be a place of mental and spiritual health, a destination to bring friends and family together. As much as anything, golf is about community.

Through a global pandemic, Canadians turned to golf in a big way. Golf Canada members posted more scores than any year in recorded history. New and returning golfers experienced the game and invested in the sport like never before. A community of excited golfers enjoyed the game safely and reminded us that golf, like life, is about the moments we share and the people we share them with.

As the National Sport Federation and governing body, Golf Canada is proud to represent more than 1,400 member clubs and nearly 274,000 members. Together with provincial, national, and international partners, Golf Canada is committed to providing resources and services to drive value and growth to our entire membership. We are also focused on engaging with public players and facilities and delivering robust tools and services that enhance the value proposition of our membership.

Our investment in the sport could not be possible without the incredible support of our members and partner facilities. Thank you for helping to enhance the golf experience and for being such an important part of our community.

Golf Canada is committed to enhancing the golf experience for enthusiasts of all ages and creating value for our proud member facilities. The launch of the new Golf Canada app, continual improvements to the Golf Canada Score Centre, implementation of the World Handicap System and the launch of First Tee – Canada reflect our commitment to servicing facilities and continuing to deliver new and exciting benefits at the club-level.

A. Course Rating and Handicapping

As a Golf Canada member, your facility is an important part of the World Handicap System (WHS)! The two key aspects of the WHS – the Rules of Handicapping and the Course Rating System – work together to make the game of golf more equitable and enjoyable for all.

An official Handicap Index allows golfers to measure performance and enables players of differing skill levels to compete equitably. Golfers can post scores online or through the Golf Canada mobile app to establish or maintain your Handicap Index. When posting hole-by-hole scores, the necessary adjustments will be made automatically and golfers can track key statistics around their game.

Official Course and Slope Ratings are issued to all Golf Canada member facilities. The ratings take into consideration factors that affect the playing difficulty of the course and allows golfers to establish and transport a Handicap Index to any rated golf course.

B. Golf Canada Score Centre

The Golf Canada Score Centre is the primary hub for facilities, groups, and leagues to manage their membership rosters and enroll golfers into the suite of Golf Canada membership benefits.

A number of modifications have been made to the Score Centre to ensure a simple process for managing a club roster. Facilities and league administrators have access to a suite of tools, benefits, and reporting functionality to ensure that golfers have easy access to Golf Canada's membership benefits and services including the Handicap system for equitable competition and games among players.

E. Hosting Championships

Golf Canada's national amateur competitions along with Provincial professional championships play a crucial role in providing a competitive pathway for all amateur golfers in Canada. These Championships are instrumental to Long-Term Player Development (LTPD) and play a role in creating champion golfers at the highest levels of competition. The success of these championships is only possible through the support of proud member clubs who host and welcome golfers from across Canada and around the world. These championships help create exposure for facilities, build a legacy of excellence and provide a platform for clubs to give back to the game.

Interested in Hosting a National Championship at your club? Please contact Adam Cinel, Manager, Rules & Competition at: acinel@golfcanada.ca

Looking at hosting Regional Qualifiers or Provincial Championships? Please visit your Provincial Association website for more information.

G. Rules of Golf

As the National Sport Federation and governing body, and in partnership with the R&A, USGA and Canada's Provincial Golf Associations, Golf Canada is responsible for overseeing the Rules of Golf in Canada.

RULES MODERNIZATION LAUNCHED IN 2019

In recent years, golf's governing bodies collaborated to deliver a modernized rules initiative. The primary intent was to push the sport and its rules into a revised language that best reflects our current game.

Golf Canada in partnership with the provincial golf associations have created several documents to help facilities understand and implement recently implemented rules changes. Numerous publications, seminar opportunities, online educations, and video are resources are available on the Golf Canada Rules of Golf page.

ASK AN EXPERT FEATURE

Golf Canada provides an "Ask an Expert" resource to help member facilities or leagues with any concerns or questions surrounding a competition. While nothing can replace an onsite referee, this resource can be a valuable resource when a question arises during a competition.

Do you have a question for our Rules Experts? Please email: smrules@golfcanada.ca

JUNIOR PROGRAMMING

Golf Canada is committed to supporting facilities in the delivery of world-class junior golf programming. Through multi-faceted on-course activities and in-school programming that reaches 440,000 youngsters annually, junior golf is a conduit to creating the next generation of golfers. New in 2021 is the exciting launch of First Tee – Canada, a partnership that will see First Tee's youth development and character building emphasis strengthen Golf Canada's junior golf activities that reach kids in schools and at golf facilities.

A. National Junior Skills Challenge

The Junior Skills Challenge is an online and interactive program that focuses on developing the key golf skills of putting, chipping and driving. An online leaderboard allows site coordinators to upload players' scores so they can track their improvement. Using the data, players are ranked nationally by age group, and by scores on the National Leaderboard.

AGE CATEGORIES

The four age groups are 8 and under, 9 to 11, 12 to 14 and 15 to 18 years old. The top ranked players from local events go on to compete in their respective Junior Skills Challenge Provincial Qualifiers. Top competitors nationally are invited to compete in the annual Junior Skills Challenge National Event.
